| 8. | Amended by Mah. | 24 of 1990 ² (28-8-1990) |

¹ Section 12 of this Act shall be deemed to have come into force on 1st April 1975 [see s. 12(2) of Mah. 21 of 1976].

² Section 26 of Mah. 24 of 1990 reads as under:—

26. Validation and savings.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or any judgment, decree or order of any Court, Tribunal or any other authority, any assessment, re-assessment, levy or collection of tax, or all penalties and any interest payable, imposed, paid or realised, or purporting to have been levied, collected, imposed, paid or realised under the Bombay Sales Tax Act, 1959 (Bom. LI of 1959), the Maharashtra Sales Tax on the Transfer of Property in goods involved in the execution of Works Contracts (Re-enacted) Act, 1989 (Mah. XXVI of 1989), the Maharashtra State Tax on Professions, Trades, Callings and Employments Act, 1975 (Mah. XVI of 1975) and the Maharashtra Tax on Luxuries (in Hotels and Lodging Houses) Act, 1987 (Mah. XLI of 1987) (hereinafter in this section, collectively referred to as “the said Acts”), which would have been validly levied, collected, imposed, payable, paid or realised if the amendments made to the said Acts by this Act were in force during the period for which such tax is or such penalty or interest is levied, collected, imposed, payable, paid or realised under the said Acts shall, for all purposes, be deemed to be, and shall be deemed to have always been levied, collected, imposed, payable, paid or realised in accordance with law; and accordingly:—

(a) all acts, proceedings or things done or taken by any authority or Tribunal in connection with the assessment, re-assessment, levy or collection of tax for the imposition, collection or realisation of any penalty or interest shall, for all purposes be deemed to be, and to have always been done or taken in accordance with law;

(b) no suit, appeal, application or other proceedings shall lie or be maintained or continued in any Court or before any Tribunal, or other authority, for the refund of any such tax, penalty or interest;

(c) no Court, Tribunal, or other authority shall a force any decree or order directing the refund of any such tax, penalty or interest;

(d) where any amount, which had been received or realised by way of such tax, penalty or interest, has been refunded before the commencement of this Act and such refund would not have been allowed if the provisions of the said Acts as amended by this Act had been in force on the date on which the order for such refund was passed, the amount so refunded may be recovered as an arrear of tax under the said Acts;

(e) any proceeding, act or thing, which could have been validly taken, continued or done or the levy, imposition or collection of such tax, penalty or interest at any time before the commencement of this Act if the provisions of the said Acts as amended by this Act had then been in force but which had not been taken, continued, done or imposed, may after such commencement be taken, continued, done or imposed, under the said Acts.

(2) For the removal of doubts, it is hereby declared that nothing in sub-section (1) shall be construed as preventing a person,—

(a) from questioning in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, as amended by this Act, any assessment, reassessment, levy, collection, imposition or realisation of tax, penalty or interest referred to in sub-section (1), or

(b) from claiming, subject to the provisions of sub-section (64) of section 38 or sub-section (3) of section 43 of the Bombay Sales Tax Act, 1959 (Bom. LI of 1959), so far as may be applicable, refund of any tax, penalty or interest paid by him, under the said Acts, in excess of the amount due from him by way of tax, penalty or interest under the said Acts, as amended by this Act.

(3) The applications made to the Tribunal under section 57 of the Bombay Sales Tax Act, 1959 (Bom. LI of 1959) and pending on the day immediately preceding the day on which this Act comes into force shall be disposed of by the Tribunal as if this Act had not been passed.

(4) Nothing in this Act shall render any person liable to be convicted of any offence in respect of anything done or omitted to be done by him, before the commencement of this Act, if such act or omission was not an offence under the said Acts, but for the amendments made to the said Acts by this Act, nor shall any person in respect of such act or omission be subjected to a penalty for an offence greater than that which could have been inflicted on him under the law in force immediately before the commencement of this Act.

(a) discovers any omission or incorrect statement therein, may furnish, a revised return in respect of the period covered by the return, at any time before a notice for assessment is served on him in respect of the period covered by the said return or before the expiry of a period of six months from the end of the year to which such return relates, whichever is earlier;

(b) agrees with the findings contained in any intimation received by him as a result of,—

(i) audit under section 7A; or,

(ii) inspection under section 18,

then he may furnish a revised return as per the findings of audit or, as the case may be, inspection within thirty days from the date of receipt of such intimation.]

[7. Assessment and collection of tax.— (1) The amount of tax due from an employer liable to pay tax shall be assessed separately for each year:

Provided that, the commissioner may, subject to such conditions as may be prescribed and for reasons to be recorded in writing, assess the tax due from any employer for a part of a year:

Provided further that, when an employer has failed to furnish, by the prescribed date, any return relating to any period in any year, the Commissioner may, if he thinks fit, assess the tax due from such employer separately for different parts of such year.

(2) The Commissioner on being satisfied that, the returns furnished by an employer in respect of any period are correct and complete, he shall assess the amount of tax due from the employer on the basis of such returns:

Provided that, the Commissioner on not being satisfied that the returns furnished by the employer in respect of any period are correct and complete, and he is of the opinion that it is necessary to require the presence of the employer or the production of further evidence in that respect, he shall serve on such employer, in the prescribed manner, a notice requiring such employer on a date and at a place specified in the notice, either to attend and produce or cause to be produced all the evidence on which such employer has relied in support of his returns, or to produce such evidence as is specified in the notice. On the date specified in the notice, or as soon as may be thereafter, the Commissioner shall, after considering all the evidence produced, assess the amount of tax due from the employer:

Provided further that, if the employer fails to comply with any of the directions or requirements specified in the notice issued under the above proviso, the Commissioner may, assess, the amount of tax due from the employer on the basis of the record available before him.

(3) Where all the returns are filed by the employer for any year starting on or after the 1st April 2004 within one month from the end of the year to which such returns relate, no order of assessment under the provisos to sub-section (2) in respect of that year shall be made after the expiry of three years from the end of the said year; and if for any reason such order is not made within the period aforesaid, then the returns so filed shall be deemed to have been accepted as correct and complete for assessing the tax due from such employer:

Provided that, in the case of returns pertaining to the years ending on or before the 31st March 2004, and filed on or before the 30th September 2004, no order of assessment shall be made under the provisos to sub-section (2) on or after the ²[1st April 2008]:

Provided further that, where a fresh assessment has to be made to give effect to any finding or direction contained in any order made under this Act, or to any order of the Tribunal or Court, Such assessment shall be made within thirty-six months from the date of communication to the Commissioner of such finding, direction or order, as the case may be:

Provided also that, in computing the period specified in the second proviso, the time during which the assessment remained stayed by or under the order of the Tribunal or Court, shall stand excluded.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in this section or any other provisions of this Act, where the assessment involves a decision on a point which is concluded against the State by the judgment of the Tribunal and the State Government or the Commissioner has initiated any proceedings against such judgment before an appropriate forum, in such a case, the Commissioner may complete the assessment as if the point was not so decided by the Tribunal against the State, but shall stay the recovery of such dues including interest and penalty, if any, in so far as they relate to such point, until the decision by the appropriate forum and after such decision, modify the assessment order, in accordance with such decision.

(5) In any case where it comes to the notice of the Commissioner that, any employer has not furnished returns in respect of any period by the prescribed date, the Commissioner may, at any time, before the expiry of the period of eight years from the end of the year to which such period relates, after giving such defaulting employer a reasonable opportunity of being heard in that matter, assess, to the best of his judgment, the tax, if any due from such employer.

(6) The Commissioner on being satisfied that an employer liable to pay tax in respect of any period, has failed to apply for registration within time as required by this Act, the Commissioner shall, at any time, before the expiry of the period of eight years from the end of the year to which such period relates, after giving such defaulting employer, a reasonable opportunity of being heard, assess, to the best of his judgment, the tax, if any, due from the employer in respect of that period, and any period or periods subsequent thereto.

(7) The amount of tax so assessed shall be paid within fifteen days of receipt of the notice of demand from the prescribed authority.]

¹[7A. Application of provisions of section 22 of Maharashtra Value Added Tax Act, 2002 and certain provisions of rules made thereunder.— Subject to the provisions of this Act and the rules made thereunder in this behalf, the provisions related to audit under section 22 of the Maharashtra Value Added Tax Act, 2002 (Mah. IX of 2005) and the provisions of the rules, made thereunder, so far as they relate to the electronic filing of returns and electronic payment of tax, or any amount payable under this Act, shall mutatis mutandis apply for the purposes of this Act.]

8. Payment of tax.— (1) The tax payable under this Act shall be paid in the prescribed manner.

²[(2) The amount of tax due from an enrolled person, as specified in his enrolment certificate, shall be paid for each year on or before the 31st March of the said year:

Provided that, in respect of the person who is enrolled and the rate of tax at which he is liable to pay tax is revised, then such revised tax shall be paid on or before the 31st March of the year in which the rates are revised.]

³[(3) The State Government may, by notification published in the Official Gazette, subject to such conditions and restrictions, as may be specified therein, provide a scheme for payment of tax, in advance, at the rate, which shall be lower than the rate applicable to an enrolled person under Schedule I.

(3A) The liability of such enrolled person, who has paid such amount in advance, as per the notification issued under sub-section (3) shall not be varied due to any increase or decrease in the rate of tax, as provided in Schedule I.]

(3) If any such question arises from any order already passed under this Act, no such question shall be entertained for determination under this section; but such question may be raised in appeal against or by way of revision of such order.]

13. Appeal.— (1) Subject to rules as may be made by the State Government, any person or employer aggrieved by any order made under sections 5, 6, 7, 9, 10, 15 or 16 may appeal against such order to,—

(a) ¹[the Deputy Commissioner], if the order is passed by any prescribed authority or officer subordinate to him ;

²[(b) the Joint Commissioner, if the order is passed by the Deputy Commissioner, and]

(c) the Tribunal, if the order is passed by any officer not below the rank of ³[Joint Commissioner].

(2) No appeal shall be entertained after the expiry of sixty days from the date of receipt of demand notice or receipt of the order:

Provided that, the appellate authority may admit the appeal after the expiry of the above period, if he is satisfied that there was sufficient cause for the delay.

⁴[(3) No appeal against an order of assessment with or without penalty or interest or against an order imposing penalty or interest shall ordinarily be entertained by an appellate authority, unless such appeal is accompanied by satisfactory proof of the payment of tax with or without penalty or interest or, as the case may be, of the payment of penalty or interest, in respect of which appeal has been preferred:

Provided that, an appellate authority may, if it thinks fit, for reasons to be recorded in writing entertain an appeal against such order on payment of not less than twenty-five per cent. of the amount of tax, penalty or interest, in respect of which appeal has been preferred, as it may direct.]

(4) The appellate authority in disposing of an appeal, may—

(i) confirm, annul, reduce, enhance, or otherwise modify the assessment or penalty or interest, or

(ii) set aside the assessment or penalty or interest and direct the authority which made the assessment or imposed the penalty or charged the interest to pass a fresh order after further inquiry on specified points.

(5) No order under this section shall be passed without giving the appellant or his representative, and where the appellate authority is the Tribunal, without giving the authority whose order or direction is the subject of the appeal or his representative, a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

14. Revision.— (1) Any order passed in appeal under section 13 may, on an application being made in this behalf, be revised by—

⁵[(a) The Joint Commissioner, if the order is passed by the Deputy Commissioner;]

(b) Any Tribunal, if the order is passed by the ⁶[Joint Commissioner].

(2) Any order passed by the ⁷[Joint Commissioner] under sub-section (1) or by the Commissioner under sub-section (4) of this section ⁸[or any order made by the Commissioner under section 12A, may, on an application being made to the Tribunal against such order, be revised by the Tribunal].

(3) No revision shall be entertained under sub-section (1) or (2) after the expiry of sixty days from the date of the receipt of the order.

(4) The Commissioner may, of his own motion, revise any order passed by any authority other than the Tribunal under this Act:

Provided that, no order shall be revised by the Commissioner under this sub-section after the expiry of three years from the passing of the impugned order.

(5) No order under this section shall be passed without giving the applicant or the assessee a reasonable opportunity of being heard.

15. Rectification of mistakes.— (1) Any authority under this Act may, of his own motion or on an application being made in this behalf, rectify any mistake apparent on the face of the record.

(2) Any authority under this Act may, review his own order if any employer has been under assessed for any period:

Provided that, if an order under this section has an adverse effect on an employer or a person, no such order shall be passed unless a reasonable opportunity of being heard has been given to such employer or person:

Provided further that, no order under this section shall be passed after the expiry of three years from the passing of the impugned order.

16. Accounts.— (1) If the Commissioner is satisfied that the books of account and other documents maintained by an employer in the normal course of his business are not adequate for verification of the returns filed by the employer under this Act, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to direct the employer to maintain the books of account or other documents in such manner as he may in writing direct, and thereupon the employer shall maintain such books of account or other documents accordingly.

(2) Where an employer willfully fails to maintain the books of accounts or other documents as directed under sub-section (1), the Commissioner may, after giving him a reasonable opportunity of being heard, impose a penalty not exceeding rupees five for each day of delay.

17. Special mode of recovery.— (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in any law or contract to the contrary, the Commissioner may, at any time, or from time to time, by notice in writing, a copy of which shall be forwarded to the assessee at his last address known to the Commissioner, require—

(a) any person from whom any amount of money is due, or may become due to an assessee on whom notice of demand has been served under this Act, or

(b) any person who holds or may subsequently hold money for or on account of such assessee, to pay the Commissioner, either forthwith upon the money becoming due or being held or at or within the time specified in the notice (but not before the money becomes due or is held as aforesaid), so much of the money as is sufficient to pay the amount due by the assessee in respect of the arrears of tax, penalty and interest under this Act, or the whole of the money when it is equal to or less than that amount.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section, the amount of money due to an assessee from, or money held for or on account of an assessee by, any person shall be calculated after deducting therefrom such claims (if any) lawfully subsisting as may have fallen due for payment by such assessee to such person.

(2) The Commissioner may, at any time or from time to time, amend or revoke any such notice, or extend the time for making any payment in pursuance of the notice.

(3) Any person making any payment in compliance with a notice under this section shall be deemed to have made the payment under the authority of the assessee, and the receipt of the Commissioner shall constitute a good and sufficient discharge of the liability of such person, to the extent of the amount referred to in the receipt.

(4) Any person discharging any liability to the assessee after receipt of the notice referred to in this section, shall be personally liable to the Commissioner to the extent of the liability discharged, or the extent of the liability of the assessee for tax, penalty and interest, whichever is less.

(5) Where a person to whom a notice under this section is sent proves to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that the sum demanded or any part thereof is not due to the assessee or that he does not hold any money for or on account of the assessee, then, nothing contained in this section shall be deemed to require such person to pay any such sum or part thereof, as the case may be, to the Commissioner.

(6) Any amount of money which a person is required to pay to the Commissioner or for which he is personally liable to the Commissioner under this section, shall if it remains unpaid be recoverable as an arrear of land revenue.

18. Production and inspection of accounts and documents and search of premises.— ¹[The Commissioner], may inspect and search any premises, where any profession, trade, calling or employment liable to taxation under this Act is carried on or is suspected to be carried on and may cause production and examination of books, registers, accounts or document relating thereto and may seize such books, registers, accounts or documents as may be necessary:

Provided that, if ²[the Commissioner] removes from the said premises any book, register, account or document, he shall give to the person in charge of the place, a receipt describing the book, register, account or document so removed by him and retain the same only for so long as may be necessary for the purposes of examination thereof or for a prosecution.

³[19. Refund of excess payment.— The prescribed authority shall refund to a ⁴[employer or person] the amount of tax, penalty, interest and fees (if any) paid by such ⁵[employer or person] in excess of the amount due from him. The refund may be made either by cash payment or, at the option of the ⁶[employer or person], by deduction of such excess from the amount of tax, penalty, interest and fee due in respect of any other period:

Provided that, the prescribed authority shall first apply such excess towards the recovery of any amount due in respect of which a notice under section 7 has been served, and shall then refund the balance, if any.]

⁷[19A. Interest on amount of refund.— Where, in pursuance of any order under this Act, in respect of any period of assessment commencing on or after the 1st April, 2004, refund of any tax becomes due to an employer or person he shall, subject to the rules, if any, be entitled to receive, in addition to the refund, simple interest at the rate of six percent per annum, for the period commencing on the date next following the last date of the period of assessment to which such order relates and ending on the date of such order or for a period of eighteen months, whichever is less. The interest shall be calculated on the amount of refund due to the employer or any person in respect of the said period after deducting therefrom the amount of penalty and interest, if any, charged in respect of the said period and also the amount of refund, if any, adjusted towards any recovery under this Act. If, as a result of any order passed under this Act, the amount of such refund is enhanced or reduced, as the case may be, such interest shall be enhanced or reduced accordingly.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section, where the refund of tax, whether in full or in part, includes any amount of refund on any payment of tax made after the date prescribed for filing of the last return for the period of assessment, then the interest, in so far as it relates to the refund arising from such payment, shall be calculated from the date of such payment to the date of such order.

19B. Interest on delayed refund.— Where an amount required to be refunded by the Commissioner to any employer or person by virtue of an order issued under this Act is not so refunded to him within ninety days from the date of the order, the State Government shall, pay such employer or person a simple interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum on the said amount from the date immediately following the expiry of the period of ninety days from the date of such order:

Provided that, where the amount becomes refundable by virtue of an order of the Tribunal, the interest under the provisions of this section shall be payable from the date immediately following the expiry of the period of ninety days from the date of receipt of the order of the Tribunal by the officer whose order forms the subject of the appeal or revision proceedings before the Tribunal.]

20. Offences and Penalties.— Any person or employer who, without sufficient cause, fails to comply with any of the provisions of this Act or the rules framed thereunder shall, on conviction, be punished with fine not exceeding five thousand rupees, and, when the offence is a continuing one, with fine not exceeding fifty rupees per day during the period of the continuance of the offence.

21. Offences by companies.— (1) Where an offence under this Act has been committed by a company, every person who at the time the offence was committed was in charge of and was responsible to the Company for the conduct of the business of the company as well as the company, shall be deemed to be guilty of the offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly:

Provided that, nothing contained in this sub-section shall render any such person liable to any punishment, if he proves that the offence was committed without his knowledge or that he had exercised all due diligence to prevent the commission of such offence.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (1), where any offence under this Act has been committed by a company and it is proved that the offence has been committed with the consent or connivance of, or is attributable to any neglect on the part of, any director, manager, secretary or other officer of the company, such director, manager, secretary or other officer shall be deemed to be guilty of that offence and shall be liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

Explanation.— For the purposes of this section—

(a) “company” means anybody corporate and includes a firm or other association of individuals; and

(b) “director” in relation to a firm, means a partner in the firm.

22. Power to transfer proceedings.— The Commissioner may, after giving the parties a reasonable opportunity of being heard, wherever it is possible to do so, and after recording his reason for doing so, by order in writing transfer any proceedings or class of proceedings under any provision of this Act, from himself to any other officer, and he may likewise transfer any such proceedings (including a proceeding pending with any officer or already transferred under this section) from any officer to any other officer or to himself:

Provided that, nothing in this section shall be deemed to require any such opportunity to be given where the transfer is from any officer to any other officer and the offices of both are situated in the same city, locality or place.

Explanation.— In this section, the word “Proceedings” in relation to any assessee whose name is specified in any order issued thereunder, means all proceedings under this Act in respect of any year, which may be pending on the date of such order or which may have been completed on or before such date, and includes also all proceedings under this Act which may be commenced after the date of such order in respect of any year in relation to such assessee.

23. Compounding of Offences.— (1) Subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, the Commissioner, may either before or after the institution of proceedings for an offence under this Act, permit any person charged with the offence to compound the offence on payment of such sum, not exceeding double the amount of tax to which the offence relates, as the Commissioner may determine.

(2) On payment of such sum, as may be determined by the Commissioner under sub-section (1), no further proceedings shall be taken against the person in respect of the same offence.

24. Powers to enforce attendance etc.— All authorities under this Act shall, for the purposes of this Act, have the same powers as are vested in a court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), while trying a suit, in respect of enforcing the attendance of and examining any person on oath or affirmation or for compelling the production of any document.

25. Bar to proceedings.— (1) No suit shall lie in any civil court to set aside or modify any assessment made or order passed under this Act.

(2) No suit, prosecution, or other legal proceedings shall lie against any authority under this Act or against any employer for anything done or intended to be done in good faith under this Act or the rules framed thereunder.

26. Power to delegate.— The Commissioner may, subject to such conditions and restrictions as the State Government may by general or special order impose, by order in writing delegate to the authority subordinate to him either generally or as respect any particular matter or class of matters any of his powers under this Act.

¹[26A. Power to collect statistics.— (1) The Commissioner may, if he considers that for the purposes of better administration of this Act, it is necessary so to do, he may, by notification in the Official Gazette, direct that statistics be collected relating to any matter dealt with, by or in connection with this Act.

(2) Upon such direction being given, the Commissioner or any officer, authorized by the Commissioner in this behalf, may, by notification in the Official Gazette and if found necessary by notice in any newspaper or in such other manner as in the opinion of the Commissioner or the said officer, is best suited to bring the notice to the attention of persons, call upon all persons to furnish such information or returns, as may be specified therein, relating to any matter in respect of which statistics is to be collected.
